[1] Temple May 4

My dear Sir

Just as I had finished my note, my friend M^r Wright came in and on seeing that I was sending to you requested that I would do him the favour of presenting his Translations of the Inferno of Dante which is only very recently published and has attracted great [2] attention in this country. Should you find time to favour me with a letter, I should feel much obliged by your acknowledging the receipt of this book.

and more, with the highest consideration,

very faithfully yours

A Hayward
