[1] Dear and much esteemed Sir,

Pray do not believe me ungrateful, that I have not written to you before this, but the reason was, I have been waiting for the Catalogue, which is now quite finished, and I thank you, dear Sir, from the bottom of my heart, for the Preface, you have been so good to write for it.

M^r Black according to your request, has also been kind enough to translate the Preface, and has written a very handsome Article, in the Morning Chronicle newspaper, of which he is the Editor.

I have, this day, forwarded to you thru the house of M^r Frank, Bookseller at Brussels, One Catalogue and Twelve Prefaces, with orders to him to forward them to you immediately, which I hope he will not fail to do. The good M^r Lassen left my house, for Paris, on the 11th of this month, I have also dear Sir, to return you many thanks for your kind interference in my behalf with the [2] Bonn Library, as thru your means, I received on January last, £ 100-. I have now then dear Sir, only to add, that the benefits you have conferred on me, shall always be gratefully remembered, by

Dear Sir

Your thankful

and greatly obliged
